The aforesaid judgment has also been followed in Trishma Singh vs U.P. Intermediate Education Board Allahabad, 2001, U.P. Local Bodies Cases 2071. Paragraph-7 of the judgment is important which is quoted below:-

"Learned counsel for the petitioner has placed reliance on the case of Vaibhav Pandey v. Board of High School & Intermediate Education (1988) 2 UPLBEC 1501, in which this Court held as under:

This writ petition is finally disposed of with the direction that respondent No. 2 Apar Sachiv, Madhyamik Shiksha Parishad shall himself check the answer book of the petitioner in Hindi IIIrd paper of High School Examination, 1998 within a period of one month from the date a certified copy of this order is produced before him. It has further been held by the Allahabad High Court in the case Mobeen Ahmad Ansari vs. State of U.P. and others (1999) 1 UPLBEC 603 as under:

"It is a matter of great concern that in the recent years there is consideration influx of such writ petitions in this Court has increased. Earlier the Board of High School and Intermediate Education had inspired so much confidence that seldom writ-petition were filed. Filing of writ petition on such a large scale before this Court indicate that there is considerable dissatisfaction among the students and their parent which requires introspection by the Board authorities as well. Although this Court seldom interfere in the revaluation of the marks, but with a view to have greater accountability and transparency there is a need for framing some certain rule to rectify the error, mistakes or defection calculation of the marks."

Thus, the respondent is directed to get the scrutiny of the answer books in accordance with the aforesaid judgments of the Allahabad High Court, where it has been held that there should be transparency of the marks and the petitioner may not be deprived from his legitimate claim.

Respondent is directed to complete the scrutiny of the answer books within a period of six weeks provided the petitioner applies for the same.

Writ petition is disposed of. No order as to costs.
